

The six BLET General Chairmen on the Union Pacific met today, June 29, 2023, to tabulate the Division's votes for the 11/4 tentative agreement proposal. The results of that tabulation are as follows:

97 Divisions voted for the agreement proposal and 11 Divisions voted against the agreement resulting in 90% passing percentage. Per the National Division Bylaws, the tentative agreement proposal has reached the necessary threshold to ratify.

The BLET will now work with Union Pacific to arrange a formal signing of the agreement and begin the process for implementation.

A list of BLET Divisions and the results of their vote as reported to their General Chairman are shown below:
